

Australia Day Trivia 2019 O'Grady Street

- According to the second verse of Advance Australia Fair, what do we have that we can share with immigrants?
Ireland forever! Do it right, you bastards! Such is life.
- What were reported to be Ned Kelly's last words?
Ireland forever! Do it right, you bastards! Such is life.
- Which cyclone hit Darwin in 1974?
Althea Debbie Tracey.
- Because they exist on hard-to-digest eucalyptus leaves, koalas have a special digestive system. How long is a koala's gut? 2m 4m 6m.
- What did Darryl Kerrigan love most about Bonnie Doon?
- Who captained Australia's men's cricket team in the recent test series against India?
- According to the John Williamson song, what can run the pants off a kangaroo?
- Who won the Gold Logie in 2018, in spite of the fact that his show had been cancelled?
- Which is the more easterly city: Sydney Townsville?
- For which Australian national team does Sam Kerr play?
Kookaburras Matildas Opals
- If Queenslanders are cane toads and if you're from NSW you're a cockroach, what are you if you're from Western Australia?
- On the Aboriginal flag, what colour is the top rectangle?
- Australian Alex de Minaur was knocked out of the Australian Open in the third round by which tennis player?
- True or false: the city of Wagga Wagga is on the Murrumbidgee River.
- Over what distance is the Melbourne Cup run: 2000m 2400m 3200m?
- Which venerable Australian newspaper company was recently taken over by Channel 9?
- Name a place that is both a suburb of the Gold Coast and Queensland's most southerly town.
- What prized Australian fish is also known as the giant perch?
- Name the orphaned pelican befriended by the boy in "Storm Boy"
Mr Billy Mr Percival Mr Fisher.
- How many butterfly species have been identified on Mt Gravatt?
10-20 40-50 60-70